

PARK SIDE MEDICAL PRACTICE

Publication of GP Net Earnings

From 1 April 2015, it is a contractual requirement for practices to declare the mean earnings (e.g. average PAYE) for GP's working within the Practice.

The average pay for GP's working at Parkside Medical Practice in the financial year was £127,156.50 before Tax and National Insurance contributions. This is for 1 full time GP and 1 Locum GP working at the practice for more than 6 months.
