Parkside Medical Practice are celebrating 70 years of the NHS

Our NHS is the best service in the world! It is there for us in good times and bad, and since its launch it has relied on the public for support.

As the service turns 70, we are reminding people about the many ways they can help and support the NHS:

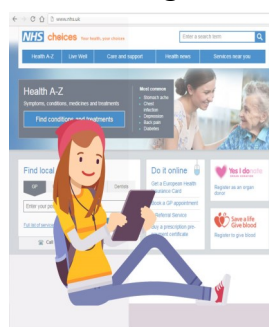

Give blood, or join the Organ Donor Register

Work for the NHS

Get involved in research projects

Take care of yourself

Volunteer

Support NHS Charities

You can also support your local surgery by keeping appointments and cancelling any unwanted appointments with plenty of notice.

Since 1st April 2018 until 29 June 2018 443 x 10 minute appointments have been missed. This equates to 74 hours of clinic time LOST.
